Services and Fee Schedule

Initial Retainer $2500 one time, non-refundable

For purposes of preliminary case assessment, a comprehensive review of the case will be conducted, including review of documents, reports, videos, statements, depositions, etc., and any research to complete a preliminary assessment. Conference with counsel will take place after initial review to discuss notes and answer questions before proceeding further.

Report work and any other billable work will be deducted from the retainer. Billing is as-needed, counsel will be notified prior to any need for further funds. All report work is started and conducted after receipt of sufficient retainer funds. A final report will be signed and issued after all outstanding balances are paid in full.

Case Work $300 per hour

Activities associated with these services include ongoing case review, research, report work and deposition/trial preparation. Fees are deducted from retainer.

Case Presentation $400 per hour

Case presentation consists of appearances for deposition and hearings other than court appearances. Depositions are billed in advance for a three hour period. Differences are either refunded or due and payable by invoice.

Court Appearance $2000 per period

Court appearances are billed in periods of four hours or any part thereof and are billed in advance for one period.

Travel $950 per day plus expenses

Travel related expenses including dining, lodging and transportation are billed at cost. Travel fees are charged in addition to any hourly fees for service.
